

LONGWELL GREEN PRIMARY SCHOOL

www.longwellgreenprimaryschool.co.uk
head@longwellgreenprimaryschool.co.uk

Newsletter Date: : Friday 11th June 2010

Number: 31

What's in your newsletter this week:

-Information about requesting tickets for the 'Happy Prince' production
-Special World Cup promotion from the school kitchen

What's on in school next week:

-Class photographs for H2, M1 and all school teams
-Y6 cross country event at Hanham High School
- The girl's cricket team are playing in the County finals in Stroud on Friday

What happened in school this week:

- Dr Bike was in school on Tuesday afternoon, helping to fix several bikes for free as part of our 'Bike It' Programme
- The BBC were in school filming for 'A Wild Night In', to be broadcast on 20th June

As reported in our previous newsletter, Charlie was the 10,000th child to receive cycle training in South Gloucestershire. Here is a photograph of Charlie and other successful cycle trainees with their trainers Alan Hale, Senior Road Safety Officer at South Gloucestershire Council.

To coincide with England's bid to win the World Cup, the school kitchen will be running a prize draw competition from Monday 14th June to Friday 18th June.. Each day a child has school dinner they will be given a ticket to write their name and class on to enter into the draw.

A winner will be picked at random each day to win some England 'goodies'.

Parent Governor Election

Thank you to all the parents who have voted in this election. As school was closed for an inservice day on Monday, the deadline for casting votes has been extended to 9.00 am on Tuesday, 15th June.