How do we know about the past?

What is History and Prehistory?

Activities to support your child outside of school

Be an archaeologist in your garden.

- We learn about the past by looking at things left behind by people in the past. Can you explore and dig in your garden and find things left by others (for example bits of pottery)

What can you tell about their lives from what you find?

Visit Museums.

(Bristol and Bath Museums or Kingswood Local Museum)

- Look at old artefacts. Can you work out how they were used? Can you imagine what it was like living in the past?
