

Outline of Christmas 2020

We continue to work up until the last day, gone are the days of a week of games – sorry! If nothing is written for a day, it is a standard school day (perhaps with some Christmas twists).

Monday 7 th	Tuesday 8 th	Wednesday 9 th	Thursday 10 th	Friday 11 th
Please remember to bring Christmas cards in no later than 15 th (next Tuesday).	Phonics check Y2 today – Government mandated!	Phonics check Y2 today - Government mandated! Monday 14 th	Tuesday 15 th	Wednesday 16 th	Thursday 17 th	Friday 18 th
See 'JustGiving' page for Save the Children https://www.justgiving.com/fundraising/LongwellGreenPrimary 	Items brought in from home for Christmas party day – no later than today. Last day for card to be brought in from home.	Last House Point count for 2020. Videos out to community. We would usually hold a retiring collection (when leaving the nativity) this year along with the FOLG we are collecting for 'Save the Children'. Christmas Maths KS2 Online AM and Christmas Maths EYFS/KS1 Online PM Children and parents told of the winning House Points team.	Christmas lunch today. House Point winning team – reward (non-uniform and a small gift). This is for the winning team only. Parents, you will be informed of the winning House by class teachers on Wednesday night.	Parties in class for at least some of the day. Fun day! (If your child is going to bring board games in, they need to be isolated for 48hours). Whole school non-uniform (please be safe – no footwear that may lead to injuries for example!) Break up – everyone at Longwell Green wishes you the very best for Christmas and we'll see you in 2021!

Remember Christmas cards and items for the final day need to come into school no later than Tuesday 15th to be isolated for 48 hours as discussed above.

Parents, please support us in making sure all personal / corridor items such as coats / bags etc. have gone home on the penultimate day, you can start to bring things that are not needed in school before this time.

Usually we collect money at the end of performances, instead this year we have set up a Just Giving page for Save the Children, please donate if you feel you are able.
