

English

The children will continue reading our class text 'One Dog and his Boy' by Eva Ibbotson. They will be writing non-chronological reports and narratives, based on this book. We will also start our new class novel 'The Wolves in the Walls'.

PSHE

The children will be celebrating differences and learning to embrace these respectfully.

Mathematics

The children will continue learning about addition and subtraction.

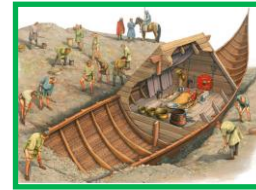

They will also be developing their multiplication knowledge and using this to multiply using column method.

They will begin to look at fractions.

PE

The children will continue to develop their teamwork skills to participate in invasion games on Thursday afternoons.

Anglo-Saxon Britain

Key facts to learn at home

- By around 410 AD, the last of the Romans returned home to Italy to take care of their empire and left Britain vulnerable to invasions.
- The Picts and the Scots in Ireland and Scotland were a constant threat to Britain especially without the Romans to help Britain to fight them off.
- The Anglo-Saxons took advantage of Britain's vulnerability to attack and invaded Britain. The Anglo-Saxons were made up of 3 tribes: The Angles, The Saxons and The Jutes. They were immigrants who came from Germany, The Netherlands and Scandinavia.
- Archaeologists have found a grave in England in Sutton Hoo, Suffolk of an Anglo-Saxon King. He was buried with his ship and his belongings. These findings tell us a lot about life at the time.

DT

We will be making woolly hat decorations for our DT project in term 2. These will be sold at the Christmas Fair.

Music

The children will continue learning about notation. They will be learning to play the glockenspiels. We will also be learning Christmas songs for the LKS2 concert.

Computing

We will be looking at using the internet including emails and adding attachments.

WOW Day! – TBC

The children will take part in a range of different activities, linking to our topic of 'The Anglo-Saxons'. They can dress up in Anglo Saxon clothes or come in dark clothes ready to add some accessories.

(Term 3 WOW day is Vikings, they wear VERY similar things so if you do choose to create an outfit they can probably wear it for both.)

French

The children will be starting a new unit 'Chez moi' (My home). They will describe the rooms in their homes and where they live.

R.E

The children will continue to look at what it means to be a Hindu in Britain today.

History

The children will be learning about Britain's settlement by the Anglo-Saxons and Scots Linking with Geography, the children will discover the European countries that the Anglo-Saxons came from.