

Week 6 term 1, 9th October 2026

This term is flying past as we've reached the end of Week 6! In a traditional term, today would be the grand finish, but we're on an eight week marathon this term, and the fact that there is so much energy in school is amazing! And I meant from children as well as adults!

Term 1 is always a lovely whirlwind of new names, new routines, and settling those natural initial wobbles. Behind the scenes, our team works tirelessly as you know to make a safe, happy space with fab learning too. One student teachers said it best this week, telling us simply: "Everyone is really nice." Spot on!

We have the disco on in school as this is being sent, and the new FOLGs team, ably supported by the outgoing fab team, are doing a super job. Thank you FOLGs (and staff) who gave their Friday evening to support this event, you bring sparkle to the school!

Thank you everyone who put on a little bit of yellow for World Mental Health day, we did all sorts of activities to age appropriately help children understand how to keep themselves mentally healthy, and had a great time doing so! INSET number one of five was successful, with safeguarding, medical, positive behaviour, data protection and much more being covered both for legal yearly updates and also for continual up-skilling.

Remember the next INSET on Monday 19th October. This is shared with multiple other schools in the area and we did not have any choice over the date. This will mean a 4 day week on the final week for pupils.

Do also remember that the next two weeks have quite a bit on - see below!

A massive thank you for your patience and understanding with this morning's late text regarding the office closure. We try hard never to disrupt things, but as human beings, unexpected moments pop up. Your support and kindness means a lot.

Finally, as Autumn rolls in (we officially had our first day under 20°C since June!), please send your children in with waterproof coats for those brisk breaktimes!

With Harvest and Halloween on the horizon, enjoy a wonderful, relaxing weekend; we have two more equally busy weeks to go!

Premier League Kicks is a free football programme funded by the Premier League Foundation, designed to give young Bristol Rovers fans the chance to get active, have fun, and enjoy the beautiful game in a safe environment.

We run inclusive drop-in sessions for boys and girls aged 8 to 18, held at the state-of-the-art Lockleaze Sports Centre, Bonnington Walk, BS7 9XF.

Led by our experienced community coaches, these sessions strike the perfect balance between structured activities and self-led play - giving young people the chance to enjoy organised games while also shaping the session themselves and deciding how they want to take part.

Please note: sessions run during term time only.
